

JUNETEENTH CELEBRATION COMMUNITY RIDE SATURDAY, JUNE 15

Join Trailnet, the Missouri History Museum, 4theVille, Northside Community Housing, Inc., the National Coalition of 100 Black Women, and the University of Missouri Extension for a leisurely, social bike ride celebrating Juneteenth! This ride features important city landmarks with a speaker at each, highlighting the different aspects of the abolition of slavery and the significance of Juneteenth. Emmy Award-winning storyteller Bobby Norfolk will join us at the Tandy Recreation Center along with MADCO Dance Company and the Sweet Tooth BBQ food truck.

The 13-mile ride begins at the Soldiers Memorial Military Museum in St. Louis, MO with registration starting at 9 a.m. and departing promptly at 10 a.m. The National Coalition of 100 Black Women will host a rest stop to keep you cool and hydrated during this ride.
